

FIRST THREE TEAMS UNCHANGED IN POLL

Ohio State Named Best Third
 Week in Row—Georgia Again
 Second, Trailed by Alabama

NOTRE DAME IS FOURTH

Georgia Tech Fifth, Wisconsin
 Sixth—Boston College Is 7th in Football Vote

Ohio State for the third straight week tops The Associated Press poll of sports writers asked to pick the country's best college football team.

The Buckeyes so dominated the balloting that eighty of the 123 voters made them their first choice and not one rated them lower than sixth. In all, the Ohioans collected 1,150 points, each No. 1 selection meaning 10 points, second 9, etc.

Georgia and Alabama retained the No. 2 and 3 slots, but fourth was won by Notre Dame, a team that was in twenty-second place only two weeks ago. The Irish bounded to eighth last week after routing the Iowa Seahawks and climbed again this week following their triumph over previously unbeaten Illinois. They displaced Michigan, which skidded to thirteenth by losing to Minnesota, and Georgia Tech moved into the fifth place, which Illinois relinquished.

Minnesota Is Tenth

Wisconsin, another of the Midwestern stalwarts, moved from seventh to sixth and Boston College vaulted from tenth to seventh. Army and Texas Christian U., leaders of the second ten a week ago, took the two spots directly below B. C., with Minnesota, No. 13 a week ago, completing the top grouping.

Eight of the leading ten teams are undefeated, Notre Dame and Minnesota presenting the only spotted records. One of the quirks of this week's voting finds Notre Dame in fourth place while Georgia Tech, which beat the Irish, 13 to 6, is fifth. The South Bend team also is two notches ahead of Wisconsin, which held the Irish to a 7-to-7 tie.

Service Teams Excluded

The poll is restricted to college teams and does not include the four pre-flight aggregations, camp or fort elevens although it was Notre Dame's victory over Lieut. Col. Bernie Bierman's Iowa Seahawks that lifted it into the limelight.

Louisiana State duplicated that jump by overwhelming Georgia Pre-Flight, 34 to 0, Saturday and climbing from nowhere to nineteenth in the listing.
