

NOTRE DAME ADDS TO LEAD IN POLL

2d-Place Army Trails by 193 Points—Cornell, Texas and Rice Elevens in Top 10

Notre Dame, the leader, will be idle this week-end, but other members of college football's "first ten" face rugged foes who should give the rankings another vigorous shuffle.

Three new teams moved into the select list after last week's upsets but the Fighting Irish strengthened their hold on the No. 1 position by mauling highly touted Tulane, 46—7.

Sports writers and broadcasters participating in The Associated Press' weekly poll were so impressed by this show of might that they gave the Irish a walloping vote. Notre Dame received 146 of 179 first-place votes and a 193-point lead over Army, which hung on to second place, with Minnesota hurdling Oklahoma to take third.

Finishing out the top ten, in order, are: Oklahoma, California, North Carolina, Kentucky, Cornell, Rice and Texas. The newcomers are Cornell, Rice and Texas.
