LOUISIANA BOUNDS BACK

Advances as Duke Is Upset—
Five Eastern Teams Are Placed in First Ten

By The Associated Press.

Pittsburgh's Panthers, who displaced California a week ago as the nation's No. 1 college football team, were given another rousing vote of confidence yesterday in the fifth weekly poll conducted by The Associated Press.

Pittsburgh was rated the top team by 43 of 53 experts. Two others bracketed the Panthers with either California or Fordham. These three teams, with Alabama, held their places for the second straight week in the poll, featured otherwise by higher ratings for Yale and Minnesota and the return of Louisiana State to the top ten for the first time in a month.

Rating of the Teams

Here is the tabulation, with points counted on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis and figures in parentheses indicating first choices:

1—Pittsburgh (43) (2 ties).....	517
2—California (5) (1 tie).....	433½
3—Alabama (2).....	393
4—Fordham (1) (1 tie).....	377½
5—Yale	260
6—Santa Clara.....	172
7—Minnesota	143
8—Louisiana State.....	121
9—Dartmouth	104
10—Villanova	78

Others receiving points were: 11, Nebraska, 55; 12, Notre Dame, 35; 13, Stanford, 32; 14, Holy Cross, 26; 15, Rice, 24; 16, Colorado, 21; 17, North Carolina, 19; 18, Vanderbilt, 18; 19, Ohio State, 16; 20, Indiana, 15; Auburn, 10; Texas Christian and Duke, 8 each; Baylor and Arkansas, 7 each; Washington, 5; Texas A. and M., 4; Cornell, 3; Tulsa and Lafayette, 2 each.

One Defeat for L. S. U.

The poll revealed Duke as the victim of last Saturday's biggest upset. The Blue Devils were knocked out of the first ten, as well as the Southern Conference leadership, by North Carolina's uprising. This made room for the return to upper gridiron society of L. S. U., victor over Auburn's powerhouse and beaten this season only by Vanderbilt.

The Northeast retained its high rating with five of its teams remaining in the first ten. Yale, replacing Dartmouth as the highest ranked "ivy league" entry, ends its season against Harvard Saturday in what promises to be a close duel.

Stanford's challenge to California's coast leadership, and with it the Rose Bowl nomination, is emphasized by this week's voting. Previously unranked, Stanford was rated thirteenth by the latest consensus, just below Nebraska and Notre Dame. The Indians play California on Saturday.
