

ALABAMA TEAM SECOND

Error Put Tide Behind Navy in Final Football Poll

Alabama, not Navy, finished second to Army in the final Associated Press poll to determine the country's top ten football teams, a re-check of the 116 votes cast showed yesterday.

A tabulator's error on the lone first-place vote for Alabama sent the midshipmen into the runner-up slot, with the Crimson Tide in third place. A re-count furnished the following results: Army 1,159 points, Alabama 942, Navy 941.
