CARNEGIE AMONG LEADERS

Breaks Into First Ten Along With Southern California and Oklahoma Elevens

Texas Christian, rated the best-balanced football power the Southwest Conference has ever produced, has ousted Pittsburgh from its three-week hold on the No. 1 position in the weekly Associated Press gridiron ranking poll.

T. C. U., an easy 21-0 winner over Tulsa last Saturday and matched this week-end with Texas, one of the three Conference rivals still to be disposed of, was voted the country's outstanding team by 48 of the 117 participating sports writers. T. C. U. earned a total of 986 points.

Notre Dame, paired with Minnesota in one of Saturday's principal engagements, drew 41 first-place ballots and 970 points for second place. Pitt is now third.

Fordham Goes to Thirteenth

Carnegie Tech, Southern California and Oklahoma are newcomers to the first ten and replace California, pushed down to fourteenth as its winning streak was broken; Northwestern dropped to seventeenth on its defeat by Wisconsin, and Fordham dropped to thirteenth after being held to 3-0 by St. Mary's.

The first ten (first-place votes in brackets, points scored on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis):

Those in Second Group

Second Ten—Holy Cross 166, Minnesota 163, Fordham 86, California 62, Wisconsin (1) 32, Alabama 31, Northwestern 29, Michigan 18, Villanova 17, Cornell 16.

Other Mentioned—Iowa State 9, Vanderbilt 6, Texas Tech 5, Harvard 4, Boston College, Purdue and Tulane 3 each, North Carolina 2, Georgetown and Brown 1 each.

From the standpoint of the rankings, this week's major tests, in addition to Notre Dame-Minnesota, are Tennessee-Vanderbilt (No. 4 vs. No. 22) and Dartmouth-Cornell (No. 5 vs. No. 22). Traditional battles, they are bound to be tough for Tennessee, Southeastern Conference leader, and Dartmouth, "Ivy League" standout.

Of the other first-tenners, Pitt will try to come back against Nebraska, Carnegie will seek the Pittsburgh city championship against Duquesne, Duke will tackle Syracuse, Santa Clara will meet St. Mary's on Sunday, Southern California will battle Washington and Oklahoma will meet Paul Christman and Missouri.
