

California Ranked Nation's Top Team by Landslide Margin

NEW YORK, Oct. 26. (AP)—California's Golden Bears, by a landslide vote of indorsement among the country's newspaper experts, remain the nation's No. 1 college football team for the second consecutive week.

Following their smashing victory over Southern California, the Bears were accorded top place in forty-eight of the fifty-seven "first ten" selections contributed to this week's Associated Press national ranking round-up and tabulated today. Last week only twenty-four rated California at the head of the class, but the feeling now is pronounced that the Bears are moving rapidly toward Pacific Coast honors, including the Rose Bowl nomination.

This week's poll was marked by a big shake-up in the lower brackets, but the "top five" remained the same, except for Pittsburgh's displacement of Alabama in the No. 2 spot. Here's the tabulation, scoring each list on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis and with first-place votes indicated in brackets:

First ten—	Points
1. California (48)	556
2. Pittsburgh (3)	408
3. Alabama	337
4. Minnesota (2)	321
5. Yale (2)	278
6. Baylor (1)	226
7. Vanderbilt (1)	167
8. Ohio State	146
9. Dartmouth	130
10. Fordham	122
Second ten: 11, Nebraska, 121;
12, Auburn, 85; 13, Duke, 84; 14,

Santa Clara, 33; 15, North Carolina, 16; 16, Villanova, 13; 17, Louisiana State, 12; 10, Holy Cross and Detroit, tied at 9 each; 20, Arkansas, 8. (Colorado and Army received three votes each, Texas Christian and Northwestern two votes each.)

BAYLOR STEPS UP

Four newcomers in the "top ten" are Baylor, Vanderbilt, Ohio State and Dartmouth, all of whom registered decisive sectional triumphs Saturday. Vanderbilt, conqueror of previously unscored-upon Louisiana State, made the biggest jump, from a tie for twentieth to seventh place. Baylor, sensation of the Southwest Conference, leaped from fifteenth to sixth, Dartmouth from eighteenth to ninth. Ohio State was rated twelfth on the national list last week.

Louisiana State dropped from sixth to seventeenth, while Northwestern, victim of Ohio State, fell from seventh to the "also-ran" company. Nebraska and Duke, although among Saturday's winners, skidded to the second ten. Auburn's wrecking crew jumped from a tie for twentieth to twelfth and seems likely to "crash" the first ten at the pace it has been traveling for the last two weeks.

ELIS FAVORED

Yale's higher rating reflects the favorite's role that the Elis likely will occupy over Dartmouth at New Haven this Saturday, in the week's feature "Ivy League" match. Two other pairings this week among the ranking teams involve Villanova and Detroit, Fordham and North Carolina. Based on their positions in the poll, Villanova and Fordham are the expert choices, although they will be playing on rival grounds.

MIDGET STARS DRIVE SUNDAY

Two "hot shots" of midget auto racing, Jimmy Miller and Art Scovell, plan to seriously branch out into the big cars at Southern Speedway in South Gate for the running of the fifty-lap Ascot Cup race Sunday afternoon.

Miller tested his luck and skill at the course last Sunday and was third highest money-winner of the day.

Famous pilots will sponsor cars and drivers in the race. Among those with entries are Louie Meyer, Babe Stapp, Rex Mays, Frank Wearne and Barney Oldfield.
