

ARMY HOLDS LEAD IN FOOTBALL POLL

For the ninth straight week over a two-year span Army's unbeaten and untied cadets have been ranked the No. 1 football team in the country.

Participating in The Associated Press weekly poll, 106 sports writers throughout the nation yesterday gave the West Pointers a total of 1,040 points on the basis of 10 for first, 9 for second, etc. Ninety-one of the scribes put the cadets first.

Notre Dame and Navy, both unbeaten and untied and who clash this week at Cleveland, maintained their No. 2 and No. 3 rankings with 899 and 798 points, respectively.

Unbeaten and untied Alabama vaulted into fourth place at 706 points, while undefeated but tied Indiana took over fifth at 457.

Ohio State, which dropped out of the first ten a week ago by losing to Purdue, climbed back to sixth place at 317 by upsetting Minnesota. Pennsylvania, 254; St. Mary's, 233; Oklahoma Aggies, 189, and Michigan, 154, round out the top ten.

The leading ten teams, determined on a basis of 10 points for each first-place vote, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc. (first-place votes in parentheses):

Army (91) . . . . .	1,040	Ohio State . . . . .	317
