

MICHIGAN REMAINS AT TOP IN AP POLL

Notre Dame Still Second, but
North Carolina Is Fourth,
Ahead of California

Michigan held the lead as four of the top ten teams bettered their positions yesterday in the next-to-last Associated Press poll of the season on leading college football teams.

The Wolverines, who ended their second straight unbeaten season with a 13-3 victory over Ohio State Saturday, polled 105 first-place votes in 190 ballots. Their point total was 1,726.

Notre Dame held second place, 103 points behind. The Irish got 38 first-place votes. Other first-place ballots went to third place Army (5), fourth-place North Carolina (14), fifth-place California (3), sixth-place Oklahoma (13), ninth-place Clemson (8), eleventh-place Michigan State (3) and twelfth-place Georgia (1).

North Carolina moved from fifth to fourth, swapping places with California. Oklahoma jumped from eighth to sixth by smashing Kansas 60-7. Penn State, sixth a week ago, plunged to eighteenth by losing, 7-0, to Pittsburgh.

Southern Methodist moved from tenth to eighth and Oregon, which closed its season by not getting invited to the Rose Bowl, climbed into the No. 10 spot from thirteenth.

Four of the first ten teams have finished their regular season—Michigan, California, Northwestern and Oregon. However, California and Northwestern will meet in the Rose Bowl.

The standing, figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 point basis (first-place votes in parentheses):
