

GEORGIA RETAINS TOP PLACE IN POLL

Bulldogs Get 69 of 126 Votes
for First Place—Georgia Tech Still Second

BOSTON COLLEGE IS THIRD

Michigan Jumps to Fourth by Victory Over Notre Dame
—Ohio State Fifth

The best college football team in the land, in the opinion of most of the 126 sports writers who voted yesterday in The Associated Press weekly poll, is unbeaten, untied Georgia, but thirty-seven of the voters still are not convinced that the Bulldogs are as good as the Eagles of Boston College.

Winners of nine straight games in which they piled up 320 points, to 49 for opponents, Coach Wally Butts's Bulldogs landed in the No. 1 spot on sixty-nine ballots to hold their place at the head of the list of the nation's top ten teams.

Boston College, which walloped Fordham, 56—6, last week, polled thirty-seven first-place votes, but still remained in third place behind Georgia Tech, a team that drew first-place mention on only thirteen ballots, but had enough additional support to hold its No. 2 rating.

A week ago Georgia was picked first on 85 of the 112 ballots, while Tech polled 14 first-place votes and Boston College 10. Michigan skipped from sixth place to fourth on the strength of its convincing victory over Notre Dame, but the biggest jumps were made by Ohio State, Tulsa and Minnesota. Tenth a week ago, Ohio State moved up to fifth place after trouncing Illinois.

Tulsa, only other team in the first ten besides Georgia, Georgia Tech and Boston College to boast a perfect record, blanked Baylor, 24—0, and jumped from ninth to sixth. Minnesota came up from sixteenth place to take over the No. 10 spot.
