

OKLAHOMA LEADER IN FOOTBALL POLL

Draws 173 of 333 First-Place Votes—Army Second, Ohio State Falls to Eighth

Oklahoma zoomed into first place in The Associated Press football poll yesterday with 173 of 333 first-place votes. Ohio State, last week's leader, tumbled to eighth after its loss to Illinois.

Powerful Oklahoma, unbeaten in twenty-nine straight games, ran away from the other contenders with a total of 2,964 points, 526 better than runner-up Army.

More than half of the football writers and sports broadcasters ranked Oklahoma in the No. 1 spot after its 41-7 romp over Missouri. The Sooners were second last week.

Army lost first-place support as it shaded Stanford, 7-0, in a mud battle, but the cadets picked up enough points to advance a notch from last week's position. Only thirty-six put Army first, compared to seventy-two a week ago.

Kentucky drew attention with its 83-0 rout of North Dakota, moving from fifth to a strong third place with fifty-five firsts.

There were no changes in the top ten membership. Four teams held the same positions. The biggest shuffle was Ohio State's drop.

After the first three came California, Texas, Illinois and Princeton. Ohio State was followed by Tennessee and Michigan State in that order. Only Michigan State has completed its schedule.

Oklahoma (8-0) has two more games to play. After its test with sixteenth-ranked Nebraska Saturday the Sooners wind up with Oklahoma A. and M.

Team standing, with points figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis (first-place votes in parentheses):
